

Teacher & Farmer Conference: How to make the most of farm visits and your local countryside

Wednesday 11th October, 9.30am to 3.30pm

A collaborative conference bringing together the combined skills and experience of Hampshire County Council's outdoor education and learning team, local Farming and Countryside Education Coordinator and staff from Country Trust Hampshire.

- Discover how education and the working countryside can work together to inspire and engage the younger generation.
- Take part in workshops to help you bring the new national curriculum to life within the local countryside.
- Get up to date with the latest health & safety advice
- Meet local outdoor education specialists, other teachers and farmers, all experts at what they do!
- Take a tour of Sparsholt College Farm and see outdoor learning in action.

For teachers: Don't miss this invaluable opportunity to learn how the working countryside provides a stimulating & versatile outdoor classroom for children of all ages and abilities. Meet your local farmers & education co-ordinators who can make it all happen for you!

For Farmers: whether you're a seasoned host, or new to farm visits, come and find out how you can share your expertise and pass on your enthusiasm and knowledge for what you do. Come and meet teachers from schools both nearby and further afield, and benefit from our education experts who will be on hand to guide you through the process.
